

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS & RESOURCES

Transportation Planning Division - American Planning Association

The Transportation Planning Division provides a platform for transportation professionals and students to network and engage with others in the field. TPD aims to cast a wide net to offer content and programming that is useful for all "transpos".

-Lance MacNiven, PMP, ENV SP, Chair

CHAPTER LIAISONS

Become a TPD Chapter Liaison to serve as the local point of contact for information sharing between State Chapters and the TPD as well as assist with local event coordination.

Primary Contacts
Robert McHaney
Lance MacNiven

SMALL GRANTS PROGRAM

Apply for funding through the TPD Small Grants Program, which can provide financial assistance for a program, study, initiative, social activity or other innovative opportunity.

Primary Contacts
Mackenzie Love
Lance MacNiven

CERTIFICATION MAINTENANCE

Tune in to free TPD-sponsored webinars throughout the year to maintain CM credits or for general knowledge.

Primary Contacts
Jennifer Love
Lance MacNiven

STATE OF TRANSPORTATION PLANNING PUBLICATION

The TPD releases its biennial report, the State of Transportation Planning free to all members. This report covers the hottest topics in transportation planning. The report is free to all TPD members.

Primary Contacts
Madhu Narayanasamy
Lance MacNiven

EMERGING PROFESSIONALS

Participate in the TPD Vanguard, a subgroup aimed at helping current students and emerging professionals navigate the transportation planning industry and launch their career.

Primary Contacts
Robert McHaney
Lance MacNiven

STUDENT PAPER COMPETITION

Compete in the TPD Student Paper Competition to be recognized and rewarded for high quality work while obtaining your degree at an accredited graduate planning program.

Primary Contacts
Cathrine Duffy
Mackenzie Love

NEWS & PUBLICATIONS

Read the TPD social media posts and monthly eBlasts newsletters for up-to-date information on transportation planning news, policy, webinars and events.

Primary Contacts
Robert McHaney
Mackenzie Love

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Join us at the next National Planning Conference to meet other transportation planners and for TPD-sponsored sessions, a scavenger hunt, the annual business meeting and a networking reception.

Primary Contacts
Jennifer Love
Lance MacNiven

@apatpd

www.planning.org/divisions/transportation